

USED EQUIPMENT MARKETPLACE

The Used Equipment Marketplace offers a place to list items that you want to sell or donate because you no longer need them. You can also use the Used Equipment Marketplace to look for an item you need to buy or receive as a donation. WATI does not physically collect or keep these items. We are a liaison between the seller and the buyer. To receive contact information about an item that is listed, call WATI. Tell them what item you are interested in and they will give you the appropriate information.

You will find the form for using the Used Equipment Marketplace on our web site or call to request one. Please submit your form to WATI at the following address:
